SYNOPSIS

A young couple, Joseph and Mary, make their way through the desert on a northbound journey to Sweden – the land of opportunities. At the very same time, an older couple sets out from the ‘promised land’ on a southbound journey in search of youth, a toned body and a great tan. KINGDOM OF SWEDEN is a present-day comedy that follows these and several other characters in their struggle to achieve happiness, all the while exploring how our society deals with the problems those struggles create.

DIRECTOR

Peter Dalle is a Swedish actor, comedian, writer and film director. He is most famous for LORRY, a long-running comedy show that premiered on Swedish TV back in 1989. Most recently he wrote and directed a 1939-set thriller AN ENEMY TO DIE FOR (Karlovy Vary 2012). As writer/director he also made AMONG OTHERS and ILLUSIVE TRACKS in 2003, UNMARRIED COUPLES – A COMEDY THAT WILL BREAK YOU UP in 1997 and YRROL – AN ENORMOUSLY WELL THOUGHT OUT MOVIE in 1994.
